El Sueño Existe Rhaglen

Awst 10, 11, 12 2007

www.elsuenoexiste.com

Mae'r freuddwyd yn fyw

Croeso i El Sueño Existe - sef digwyddiad unigryw sy'n dod â cherddoriaeth, gwleidyddiaeth a diwylliant America Ladin i gefn gwlad odidog Cymru.

Gan ddilyn llwyddiant gŵyl 2005 a ganolbwyntiai fwy ar hanes, bydd gweithgareddau eleni yn cyflwyno i chi'r digwyddiadau diweddaraf yn America Ladin ac yn archwilio materion cyfoes pwysig megis y newid hinsawdd a thegwch byd-eang. Rydym ni hefyd wedi ehangu'r rhaglen, gan roi mwy fyth o gerddoriaeth, dawns, barddoniaeth a theatr i chi o America Ladin, Cymru a gweddill y byd.

Yr ysbrydoliaeth y tu ôl i El Sueño Existe ydy Victor Jara, y cyfarwyddwr theatr, y canwr, y cyfansoddwr a'r gweithredwr gwleidyddol enwog o Chile. Chwaraeodd ran amlwg mewn sefydlu'r mudiad 'Cân Newydd' Chileaidd ond cafodd ei boenydio a'i ladd yn ystod y chwyldro yn Chile ym 1973. Mae'r gwrthgyferbyniad rhwng themâu ei ganeuon, am gariad, heddwch a chyfiawnder cymdeithasol a'r ffordd giaidd y cafodd ei lofruddio wedi trawsnewid Jara yn symbol parhaol o ymdrech dros hawliau dynol a chyfiawnder ar draws America Ladin.

"Rwy'n credu ei fod yn rhyw fath o wyrth bod enw ac esiampl Victor Jara, ddeg ar hugain o flynyddoedd ar ôl ei farwolaeth greulon, yn dal i allu dwyn pobl ynghyd i weithio dros fyd gwell."

Joan Jara.

Gydol y penwythnos

El Sueño Existe Programme

10, 11, 12 August 2007

www.elsuenoexiste.com

The Dream Lives on

Welcome to El Sueño Existe – a unique event which brings Latin American music, politics and culture to the beautiful Welsh countryside.

Drawing on the success of the 2005 festival which took a historical perspective, this year's activities bring us right up to date with recent developments in Latin America and explore important contemporary issues such as climate change and global equity. We've extended the programme too, brining you even more music, dance, poetry and theatre from Latin America, Wales and the rest of the world.

El Sueño Existe takes its inspiration from Victor Jara, the renowned Chilean theatre director, singer-songwriter and political activist, who played a pivotal role in establishing the Chilean 'New Song' movement and was tortured and killed during the 1973 Chilean coup. The contrast between the themes of his songs, on love, peace and social justice and the brutal way in which he was murdered transformed Jara into a enduring symbol of struggle for human rights and justice across Latin America.

"I think that it is some kind of miracle that over thirty years after his cruel death Victor Jara's name and example can still bring people together to work for a better world."

Joan Jara.

Throughout the weekend

Children's activities

A full programme of films – watch the blackboard. Look out especially for the short films about El Salvador by Malcom Borer

Impromptu music sessions in the White Lion and Quarry Café welcoming musicians and poets who wish to perform ad hoc.

South American food at Blassau delicatessen and the Quarry Café and various venues around Machynlleth.

People and Land Rights, Art exhibition by Joan Santana in the Plas foyer. The work is about our connectedness to the land. In the 'Pacha Mama' painting and the reliefs, landscape is based on a human form to show this.
